FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN:

“Lord, it is good for us to be here”. Those are the words of Peter as Jesus was transfigured before James and John, and himself. We trust those are our Words today as we gather at God’s House to Worship Our Lord and Saviour. To those visiting with us today, we pray you will be blessed by being in the Fellowship of Burnout Baptist Church today. We thank our Sunday School teachers for leading us in a lesson from God’s Word today. And our Worship leader and musicians for our song service. We are going to be talking today about: “What Keeps the Christian Going”. We trust the message will be a source of encouragement to each one.

We still have those who are sick in our Church family and community... Bro. Andy Hardin was scheduled to go for another treatment Friday. Sis. Becky’s mother has been back in the hospital this week (Princeton in Birmingham). We trust the doctors have found some of her problems, that they will be able to help her. Pray for Sis. Becky and her brother as they give care to her. Also... our Shut-ins. I know they get so lonely at times... (Yet the Lord is an ever present help). Several have given up loved ones in our community this week... may the Lord comfort them.

Beginning next Sunday Night, we will be having guest speakers in our evening Worship as we think about ‘Sunday Night Revival’. I trust these services will be a source of encouragement to each of us.

Pray for us each time you pray... and one another in our prayers. Have a Blessed week... In Christ’s Love, Bro. Danny.

VERSE: “The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.” Proverbs 29:25

THOUGHT: Throughout scripture, there is consistent warning against the fear of other people. And then in Luke, Jesus told us to fear other human opponents. When we try to please others, when we fear what others may say or do to us, we place ourselves in a position of great vulnerability. Our lives no longer remain our own. We are yielding control of our life to others. We become captive to what others think, want, or threaten. Often in scripture, we find “fear the Lord”. We are to trust the LORD and reverence Him. In God is our safety, both now, and forevermore.

PRAYER: Please keep me safe, O LORD, from those who oppose me and would do me harm, in both word and deed. Make my life a holy praise to honor you. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen
